Requests for Sealed Quotes

As per file of council #24 of 2012 (city ordinance), the city of Scranton is disposing of a lot of nineteen (19) vehicles formerly utilized by the Scranton Police Department that are no longer in serviceable condition for the police department. The vehicles are a mixture of former police equipment package service vehicles and non-police equipped vehicles owned by the City of Scranton. The vehicles are being sold as “junk” in an “as is” condition with no guarantee or warranty. Some vehicles run and drive and are “whole” and some have missing mechanical and/or body parts. Titles are “in hand” for all vehicles. All of the vehicles can be inspected now through the opening of the quotes in the rear parking lot of the Scranton Police Department at 100 South Washington Avenue Scranton, Pa. 18503 Monday- Friday between 7:30am & 5:00 pm or respectively at the DPW Complex 101 W. Poplar Street Scranton, Pa. 18509. The vehicles that are included in this sale are clearly marked with an “X” on the windshield. Attached is a list of the nineteen (19) vehicles and their locations for inspections.

None of the police accessories (emergency lights, sirens, police radio’s, etc.), where applicable, shall be included in the sale and said items will be removed by the city of Scranton prior to the removal of the vehicles from the lot by the successful bidder/buyer. All sealed quotes received will be opened in the City Controller’s Office on Thursday November 16, 2017 at 10:00 am. The highest bid will be selected from all quotes submitted.

All nineteen (19) vehicles are being sold as one lot and any quotes must be submitted as one quote for all nineteen (19) vehicles. No quotes will be accepted for individual vehicles. Sealed quotes must be hand delivered or mailed directly to:
