

The Office of Mayor William Courtright | The City of Scranton

Mayor Courtright's comments on the passing of former Mayor James Barrett McNulty

“Mayor James Barrett McNulty loved Scranton as much as anyone. He was a tireless advocate for our city, both while in office and notably in the years after. He is remembered fondly as a man who had an endless well of energy and boundless vision when it came to serving the people of Scranton and for those close to him, a dedicated and loving husband. Mayor McNulty was a consummate public servant and a true champion for the Electric City. I will always cherish the memories of the times we shared together.

On behalf of the City of Scranton, I offer our deepest condolences to his wife Evie and the entire McNulty family.”
