THE WRIGHT CENTER FOR COMMUNITY HEALTH
AND THE RYAN WHITE HIV/AIDS CLINIC

Virtual Information Session

Tuesday, July 25 | 9 -10 a.m. EST

The virtual informational session will provide an overview of the various services available throughout the Ryan White HIV/AIDS Clinic and the network of practices The Wright Center for Community Health operates in Northeast Pennsylvania.

Serving Northeast Pennsylvania for more than 20 years, The Wright Center's Ryan White HIV/AIDS Clinic offers comprehensive services for people living with or at risk for HIV/AIDS, including prevention, testing, and treatment. Conveniently located at our community health centers in downtown Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, our Ryan White HIV/AIDS Clinic continues to not just save lives, but markedly improve them.

The session will be held via Webex. A calendar invite with the link will be sent to those who register.
