Road Repairs to Impact Downtown Scranton Traffic

SCRANTON, Pa. – Heavy traffic congestion is expected on Thursday, April 11, 2024, as crews conduct street repairs near a heavily traveled intersection of downtown Scranton.

The 400 block of Linden Street, between Wyoming and North Washington Avenue, will be closed from 7 a.m.-3 p.m. Additionally, the 300 block of North Washington Avenue will be reduced to one lane of traffic.

Crews will be restoring roads, including milling and paving, Thursday. Restriping of lines and crosswalks will follow at a later date.
